April 23d, 1753. [NUMB. 984.]

LONDON, Nov. 28.

GREAT intereſt is making in a certain county to induce the freeholders to delegate their power to a few noble L—ds; who, as they are the propereſt judges, will no doubt fix upon the fitteſt perſons to repreſent the commons in a future P—l—m—t.

London, Jan. 13. As it ſeems to be a Point of Notoriety, that the loweſt of the People are now as univerſally and as thoroughly corrupt as the greateſt in other countries, the moſt obvious and certain Remedy ſeems to be, taking care of their Poſterity, that the next age may have ſome chance for Induſtry and Principles, and for that, at leaſt, ſtand indebted to the preſent. In order to this, the Hint given of putting all the Pariſh Children within the Bills of Mortality under the Direction of the FOUNDLING HOSPITAL, appears to be a proper and practicable expedient, and would certainly furniſh Servants of both Sexes better inſtructed, and leſs expoſed to corruption from bad examples than any other.

The approach of a ſeſſions of Parliament was always matter of Joy to our Anceſtors, as they figured to themſelves certain Relief from whatever diſturbed or oppreſſed them; we ought therefore to comfort ourſelves like them with the Hopes, that in a Seaſon of profound Peace the Legiſlature will, in their great Wiſdom, find Ways and Means to remove ſome of the moſt burthenſome of our Taxes.

Certain Grumblings in the North, the Cavalier ſtep taken lately in Pruſſia, the new Flame blown up in Corſica, the depredations in America, and the ſecret Diſputes at Conſtantinople ſeem to make it the neceſſary Study of every Nation in Europe to look to her own Concerns, leſt, in caſe of any new Ruſtle, thoſe will be certainly in the moſt Situation, who have minded that Leſſon leaſt.
